

JOBS FOR EX-YANKS
GOAL OF CAMPAIGN
"Employment Sunday" Tomorrow Works Effort to Find Work for Veterans

APPEALS FROM CHURCHES

Clergymen in every pulpit in the state will launch the "Pennsylvania jobs for Pennsylvania soldiers" campaign tomorrow, as designated by President Wilson as "employment Sunday."

The project, sponsored by the army and navy department of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, is nation-wide in its scope and the campaign will be carried on in every state, each for its own sake. It is endorsed by Secretary of Labor Wilson and the United States employment service.

Governors of the states and mayors of all the larger cities have followed the example of President Wilson in issuing appeals for united and effective effort in behalf of the men who are being released from the military service.

Pastors of Philadelphia churches will dwell in their sermons tomorrow on the necessity for immediate employment of ex-service men in positions they can fill and at fair wages. They will lay stress on the sacrifices which the men themselves have made in behalf of those who remained at home.

President's Message
Following is the text of President Wilson's message on "employment Sunday," cabled from the Peace Conference:

"The church organizations of the country having generously united in an effort to assist the Employment Service of the United States in finding work for returning soldiers and sailors and war workers and having designated Sunday, May 4, as 'Employment Sunday,' I am happy to add my voice to others in an appeal to our fellow-countrymen to give their earnest and united support to this and every similar movement."

"I hope that the people of the country will universally observe 'Employment Sunday' as a day of fresh dedication to the mutual helpfulness which will serve to work out in the months to come the difficult problems of employment and industrial reorganization. In these days of victory, we must make no better offering than that of service to the men and women who have won the victory."

"WOODROW WILSON"
Church welcome committees in all parts of the country already have been doing an active work in welcoming the returned soldiers and sailors, placing them in jobs and serving them through the many channels of church and community life. This plan of welcoming returned men has the hearty endorsement and co-operation of the big welfare organizations, notably the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. and War Camp Community Service. The general war-time commission is actively pushing the idea.

Fit Men Into Right Place
Fitting the returned man into his proper place in the community and church life is the keynote of the plan. It suggests that each church should form at once a committee of its active laymen, to get in touch with the men as they return home, seek out their needs and in every way possible work with them in filling those needs.

Jobs are found, entertainments are planned, the man is welcomed to the church and to all activities of the community life. He is welcomed home and shown that his church and community feel proud of him, not in a stand-still semblance of hero worship, but in real service that tends to build up and strengthen the ideals for which he fought.

SPOUL PICKS JUDGE SOON

Joseph P. McCullen Considered W. Carr's Most Probable Successor
Governor Sproul is expected to name a successor to the late Judge William W. Carr, of Common Pleas Court No. 4, within a few days. Several names have been presented to the Governor. Leading attorneys and citizens are urging the naming of Joseph P. McCullen. The place belongs to a Democrat, it is admitted, and there seems to be a consensus of opinion that Mr. McCullen should be selected.

The governor is also expected to name two magistrates to fill the vacancies caused by the deaths of John F. Collins, of the Fifteenth ward, and George K. Hogg, of the First. A Vore man will get the downtown appointment, but a Penrose fellow will be named to succeed Magistrate Collins. Lieutenant Barry is in the lead for the position in the Fifteenth ward, but Judge Charles L. Brown is said to be urging the selection of Hugh L. Montgomery, a close friend.

SIX PHILADELPHIA "Y" MEN WERE WITH IRON DIVISION

Keystone State Yanks Smoked Nearly Twenty Million in Eight Months, War Canteen Records Show

SIX secretaries of the Young Men's Christian Association, all Philadelphians, were active in giving aid and comfort to the fighting Yanks in the Iron Division.

Of the seventy-five secretaries with the Twenty-eighth, twenty-two came from Pennsylvania, and altogether twenty-six states were represented in the number. The Pennsylvania boys were evidently most fond of biguets, for the report shows that from July to February, inclusive, the post exchanges under "Y" auspices handled more than a million packages of these dainties. Chocolate bars were another favorite luxury, the Keystone Division in the period mentioned making away with no fewer than 1,180,744. The canned fruits and tins of jam, the confitures, as the French called them, which made even army bread more palatable, were also in demand, 189,412 being the number of tins mentioned in the report as distributed in the eight months through the "Y" warehouses to this division.

As to tobacco and cigarettes, the figures are even more astounding. The "Y" canteens for this division alone used in the eight months very close to 20,000,000 cigarettes alone, 10,709,974 to be exact, to say nothing of nearly a million and a half cigars (1,434,325) and 210,437 packages or pounds of chewing and smoking tobacco.

Gifts Amounted to $27,370
This includes only the supplies handled through the Y. M. C. A.'s divisional warehouse and not those bought by but secretaries from sales commissaries and other sources which would increase the total by about 15 per cent.

FURLONG, HAROLD A., 1st Lieut. Co. M 353rd Inf.

FOR conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity above and beyond the call of duty in action with the enemy near Bantheville, France, 1 November, 1918.

Immediately after the opening of the attack in the Bois de Bantheville, when his company was held up by severe machine-gun fire from the front, which killed his company commander and several soldiers, Lieutenant Furlong moved out in advance of the line with great courage and coolness, crossing an open space several hundred yards wide. Taking up a position behind the line of machine guns, he closed in on them, one at a time, killing a number of the enemy with his rifle, putting four machine-gun nests out of action, and driving twenty German prisoners into our lines.

Home Address: Arthur D. Furlong, Father, 2950 West Grand Boulevard, Detroit, Mich.
